

VTech Statement on Toy Safety

In light of the recent product recalls, VTech would like to reaffirm our ongoing commitment to the safety and quality of our electronic learning products for your children. We want to assure you that VTech's products comply with the highest levels of the US and European safety standards. Through ongoing rigorous testing, we maintain strict control and supervision over the quality of our products to ensure we provide the safe, quality learning toys that you have grown to know and trust.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,
